

BRYAN'S STAND PUZZLE TO COX

Anxious for Assurance From Commoner That He Will Support Ticket.

By ALBERT F. BAENZIGER.
International News Service.
COLUMBUS, Ohio, July 14.—The question of whether William Jennings Bryan and his following will ultimately support the Democratic ticket was the one subject that occupied most of the attention in the conference held here between Gov. James H. Cox, Democratic Presidential nominee; Secretary Franklin D. Roosevelt, his running mate, and Judge Timothy T. Anshury, of Washington, Governor Cox's political adviser.

It was learned that the Commoner sent a personal message of well wishes to the Vice Presidential candidate through a former secretary, telling him he was glad he received the nomination. No word had yet been received from Bryan by Governor Cox.

The candidates expressed themselves as particularly pleased with the harmony outlook in the party. The telegrams of congratulation from Senator James Reed of Missouri, who was uneaten in the convention, and Thomas Watson, of Georgia, assure the support of these factions, and if Mr. Bryan and his followers could be whipped into line a united Democracy would start the campaign.

For the first time Governor Cox showed an interest in the Third Party movement in Chicago. He asked if the balloting would commence today and who the possible candidates would be.

His main point of interest was disclosed by question as to whether it was believed the Third Party would be supported by the Non-Partisan League.

Ed H. Moore, Governor Cox's convention manager, is suffering from a nervous breakdown in San Francisco. A message to the candidate from Wilbur W. Marsh stated Moore was under the care of a nurse and no visitors were permitted to see him. Governor Cox immediately dispatched word of condolence and asked that he be kept closely advised as to Moore's condition.

NOT NERVOUSNESS, JUST INSOMNIA, SAYS MOORE

SAN FRANCISCO, July 14.—Ed H. Moore, national committeeman from Ohio and convention campaign manager for Governor Cox, yesterday made light of reports that he had suffered a nervous breakdown.

"I have been slightly under the weather for a couple of days," he said, "but reports that I have suffered a nervous breakdown are absurd. Moore says he has been troubled with insomnia, but appeared to be in good health when seen at his hotel today. He denied he had taken hospital treatment.

DROWNS WITH CHUM SHE TRIES TO SAVE

Girls, 17, Meet Death Together
While Bathing in Monocacy River.

FREDERICK, Md., July 14.—Elizabeth Ball, daughter of S. M. Ball, and Elizabeth Plant, daughter of Mrs. Mary Plant, Buckeystown, each seventeen years old, were drowned in the Monocacy river in about seven feet of water near Buckeystown yesterday afternoon. They went under locked in each other's arms, Miss Ball trying to save her friend, who could not swim.

The drowning was witnessed from the bank by Miss Anna Ball, a sister of one of the victims. Misses Mary Butler, Buckeystown, and Charlotte Haller, this city, made several unsuccessful attempts at rescue. Their screams brought assistance and the bodies were recovered side by side two hours later. The victims were among a swimming party including Misses Anna Ball, Charlotte Haller, Ella Batson, of Washington; Irene Harper, of Monrovia, and Otto Keller and Henri Cromwell.

Before going into the water the party separated. Misses Batson and Harper and Keller and Cromwell went for a ride in a canoe. The victims started to wade toward a diving board in deep water. Miss Plant insisted, it is said, upon being allowed to go as far as she could without assistance. Suddenly she began to founder in deep water and went under. Her companions immediately went to her assistance. Miss Ball, who was an expert swimmer, seized her and started to swim toward the shore. Almost in an instant the two disappeared, both coming to the surface twice.

Miss Plant formerly resided in Baltimore, having removed with her mother to Buckeystown about six months ago.

BOLD, BAD BANDIT, 12, ROBS 2; GETS 8 CENTS

Baltimore Youngster "Laid in Wait" for Youthful Victims in Broad Daylight.

BALTIMORE, July 14.—A twelve-year-old bandit, leader of a "blood-thirsty gang" of two members of about the same age, is under arrest here, the police say, in the diminutive person of Peter Sessa.

With his two "gangsters," Peter is said to have held up John Siegel, aged fourteen, in broad daylight, and robbed him of 6 cents. Not satisfied, the gang then "laid in wait" until Samuel Stofeig, aged eleven, came along. They held him up, too, and got 2 cents more.

A policeman saw the second hold-up and gave chase. Peter was caught, but his gangmen escaped.

BIGAMIST HUSBAND 'COULDN'T HELP IT'

'Lover Every Minute,' Declares
Wife No. 2—Sorry He Landed in Prison.

DETROIT, July 14.—Unwittingly did handsome Edith Oldfield, second of four wives of John H. Oldfield, send her bigamist husband to prison.

"The next five years with him in prison will be a cross for me to bear," she said, after Judge Harry Keidan had sentenced Oldfield to two and one-half of five years, following his plea of guilty.

Oldfield's matrimonial career started about ten years ago, when he married a Canadian girl who later divorced him and is now living in Windsor. He refused to give her name.

He married Edith Smith, of New York, in Detroit, August 24, 1914, following the divorce. With her he lived six years while working as a traveling salesman in Michigan.

While still living with his second wife he married Agnes Norman at Waukegan in 1916. His fourth wife was Helen Gates, whom he married in Detroit about four weeks ago, spending their honeymoon at the Hotel Cadillac.

Oldfield's fourth honeymoon was rudely broken into when his second wife came to Detroit to locate him in order to start divorce proceedings. A general round-up of wives followed, with a quick sentence following the plea of guilty.

Then wife No. 2 was filed with remorse.

"I would not have done this had I known where it would lead," said she. Mrs. Edith Smith Oldfield, a brunette of magnetic presence, handsome, well proportioned and tastefully gowned.

"I would have gone to another State, waited a few years, then have started divorce proceedings on another charge."

"He was a wonderful husband. He was a lover every minute. But my life was a hell with him, because of his womanizing. But you know, he was the kind that you could forgive. He was so handsome, so boyish. He just couldn't help loving women. It was his only weakness."

"The five years they gave him will be a cross for me to bear. I wonder will I always be thinking of him there in prison?"

Her face brightened. "But inside of two months he'll be the pet of the prison. He'll have them all his friends."

He married the Illinois girl while he was on one of his business trips. He slipped away from the hotel for a couple of days, then came back to me. When I found out about it I left him.

"This little Helen Gates is the baby kind. She cried all the time. Perhaps I feel as deeply as she does, but I don't cry. She's the only blonde I ever had in my life. He always liked large, dark women, like me. I asked him: 'What's the matter, Jack, did you run out of brunettes?'"

"I don't know why he did this. I guess he just couldn't help it."

Oldfield spoke highly of his last three wives, but rather laughed off the first marriage. He said he would plead guilty to keep his wives' names out of it.

REDFIELD BRINGS SUIT FOR $5,000,000 DAMAGES

NEW YORK, July 14.—William C. Redfield, former Secretary of Commerce, and Harley P. Wilson, his business partner, yesterday instituted suit for $5,000,000 damages against the National Petroleum Corporation, with offices here.

The suit is for an alleged breach of contract and charges that the company failed to deliver to Messrs. Redfield and Wilson from 2,000 to 5,000 barrels of crude oil daily at Tampico, Mexico, as agreed.

OLDEST BRITISH CONSUL LIES AT DEATH'S DOOR

BALTIMORE, Md., July 14.—Gilbert Fraser, former British consul general at Baltimore, is at the point of death at his summer cottage at North Asbury, N. J., reports today stated.

He has been in failing health for some time due to a nervous breakdown which he sustained during the war when he took over a large part of the work of the consul general in Boston, New York, Philadelphia and New Orleans. He is the oldest member of the British consular service in North America.

TWO GENERAL ALARM FIRES RAGE NEAR BOSTON

BOSTON, July 14.—Two general alarm fires destroyed two industrial plants today, causing thousands of dollars damage and driving many families from their homes.

The plants destroyed were those of Walker Brothers Dyeing and Bleaching Company, Chelsea, and the Woburn Iron Foundry, in Woburn. The Woburn blaze threatened the entire tannery district of that city.

GRANDMA NEVER LET HER HAIR GET GRAY

She Kept Her Locks Dark and Glossy With Sage Tea and Sulphur.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture though, at home is messy and troublesome. At little cost you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients called "Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with the Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger.
